Welcome to the second Library News Bulletin. January is over and we’re now into February and hopefully spring is just around the corner. It’s been a busy month in the library with more to come, all of which is outlined below.

ESOL Collection - the library has created a new collection of books for ESOL students. These comprise of “Quick Reads” by James Patterson, Andy McNab and Lynda La Plante to name a few. We’re hoping that other students will enjoy them too, they’re near the counter so do come and have a look. There are also dictionaries books on grammar and use of vocabulary.

Stephen Macdonald, our new Librarian graduated last month. Not only does this mean he is now a fully fledged librarian but he got a special prize for getting consistently high grades across the whole of his course. Well done Stephen!

Quiz Night—Wednesday 28th February
Ground Floor, Leonardo's
Doors open 6pm for a 6.30pm start.
Teams of up to 6 people, £4 per person entry fee. Staff, students & guests welcome. Half time raffle. Book your table in advance at the library helpdesk, or e-mail library.helpdesk@wsc.ac.uk.

Subject of the month—This month the library will have a display of books and information on Equality and Diversity plus LBGTQ. Pop up to the library and have a look.

Electronic Resources - Focus on—Digital Theatre Plus

Digital Theatre Plus is the library’s newest electronic resource. It’s great for those doing performing arts but also for students studying English and History. A great database, it gives unlimited access to some of the world’s finest productions, unique backstage insights, practitioner interviews and written analysis. It includes plays by Shakespeare, Ibsen, Miller, Sondheim and many more. Film, opera, dance—including ballet, and classical music performances by the London Symphony Orchestra. Accessed via the library website—login with your WSC network login. To take a look use this link http://bit.ly/Digithplus